Step 3 Can you afford the increase in premiums over time?

Premium Projection Table

Age	Current Premium upon attained age (RM)	Estimated Premium		Over the long term, you can reduce premium payable by choosing plans with:
		Based on medical inflation of <7>% ¹ per annum (RM)	Based on medical inflation of <10>% per annum (RM)
<Entry age (N)>	<XX>
<N+5 years>	<XX>	<YY>	<ZZ>
<N+10 years>	<XX>	<YY>	<ZZ>	(a) A higher deductible.
<N+15 years>	<XX>	<YY>	<ZZ>	(b) A lower overall annual limit.
<N+20 years>	<XX>	<YY>	<ZZ>

• The projection above is solely for illustration purposes only.

• Premiums are affected by both the increase in treatment costs and the increased use of healthcare services by policy owners. This can result in actual medical inflation rate being higher or lower than the above illustration. We are undertaking the necessary cost containment measures in co-operation with other stakeholders to manage premium increases over time.

• The bulk of your premiums will go to paying claims. On average, for every RM1.00 of premium paid, RM<0.72>² is allocated to pay claims. The remainder goes to management expenses and profits for insurer.

¹ This is the year-on-year increase in the average treatment cost as billed by hospitals to the insurance and takaful industry from years <2020 to 2023>.

² This is based on insurance and takaful industry average data from years <2021 to 2023>. The actual experience of the plan you purchase may differ from the industry average.

*Others include Management Expenses and Profits

Note: This chart is not drawn to scale

- If you decide you do not want this policy within 15 calendar days after the policy has been delivered to you, you can contact us to cancel your policy and receive a full refund of premium received by Us.
- Your coverage will only start 30 calendar days after the issue date or latest reinstatement date of the policy except for accidental injuries.
- There is no commission charged on this product, except policy related expenses such as management expenses including RM10 stamp duty, which have been incorporated in your total premium.
